

Thank You for Faithfulness in Tithing & Giving

Tithing and offering is scriptural and is used to support the organizations of the Church. Place your tithes and offerings in an envelope and designate it as such so it will be handled in the proper manner. Our first Sunday (of the month) offering goes to the Pastor, second Sunday to Missions, third and fourth Sunday for church expenses. We collect an orphanage offering the last Sunday of the month and every fifth Sunday offering goes to our church treasurer.

Online and Credit Card Giving is now available, see our website for more details.

Greetings

We are a vibrant and diverse fellowship of people who have been drawn together by a supremely wonderful reality. God has changed us! Through the cross and resurrection of Jesus Christ, he has forgiven us of our sin and refashioned us according to his glorious image.

By a miracle of his grace, our hearts pulsate with the love of Christ. We worship God with all of our hearts and with all of our resources. It is our greatest joy and privilege to serve the people of God. We love God and we love His people.

We invite you to feel at home in our father's house, and to expect to receive from the Lord every time you come. Prayer is the cornerstone of this church and through prayer and expectation, you will see transformation. May the Lord richly bless you is our prayer.

Pastor and Lady Balram

Welcome To Rockville Church of God of Prophecy

A Place of Faith, Family and Friends

October 18, 2015

Thanks for joining us today @ Rockville Church of God of Prophecy. We trust you are blessed and encouraged through the worship, prayer and the word along with the love and warmth of our fellowship.

Rockville COGOP is a mission center and Christian community dedicated to helping hurting and hungry people find faith, hope, and dignity alongside each other. We love to throw parties, tell stories, find hope, and practice the ways of Jesus as best we can. We're all hurt or get hungry in our own ways. We're at different places on our journey but we share a guiding story, a sweeping epic drama called The Bible. We find faith as we follow Jesus and share a willingness to honestly wrestle with God and our questions and doubts. We find dignity as God's image-bearers and strive to call out that dignity in one another. We all receive, and we all give. We are old, young, poor, rich, conservative, liberals, single, married, evangelicals, progressives, over-educated, undereducated, certain, doubting, hurting, and thriving. Yet Christ's love binds our differences together in unity. At Rockville COGOP, everyone is safe, but no one is comfortable.

Dear Rockville Congregation,

It has, indeed, been my pleasure to be a minor instrument over the years with assisting your church to facilitate and help guide your Mission Giving. What an incredible blessing you have been to so many nations. Thank you from the bottom of my heart.

Although 52 years have passed since the Rockville Church came into existence, I'm certain that some aspects haven't changed but, most likely, have become even stronger through the many smiles and tears that have been shared by this congregation. May this be a very special anniversary as you look back on cherished memories that have brought you to this place today, and as you move forward in God's plans. And, may His unfailing grace continue to smile upon each and every one as you continue to hear the voice of the Lord directing your hearts to bless those He has called you to become a part of within this vast Harvest.

Thank you again for your faithfulness, love, encouragements, and tremendous support for the mission network. Only heaven will surely be able to reveal the impact you have made on the lives of so many...

Church of God of Prophecy International Offices

I consider it a special honor to extend a word of congratulations to Pastor and Sis. Balram, current and former leaders and members of the Rockville Church of God of Prophecy as you celebrate your 52nd anniversary of this wonderful congregation. Celebratory moments are excellent opportunities to revisit your past, recount the unique journey God has taken your church on, and give thanks as you stir your memories of the people, the places, the challenges and the victories of the last fifty-two years. I hope that the spirit of those who made significant sacrifices to begin this church and to nurture it through all its phases of development continues to permeate you, the present members and leaders. I pray that the best of your foundations have been fully embraced and are being built upon as you wait to see what God will do in the days ahead. The promise of our Lord is particularly relevant as you remember your unique history: "...on this rock I will build my church and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it" (Matt. 16:18). May the Lord's favor continue to rest on you so that you will become that Christ-exalting, Spirit-filled, disciple-making, all-nations community of people who are extending God's kingdom through your holy lives and faithful proclamation of Jesus. Going forward in the harvest, David Bryan
