

THANK YOU FOR FAITHFULNESS IN TITHING &
GIVING

“Bring the full tithe into the storehouse, that there may be food in my house. And thereby put me to the test, says the Lord of hosts, if I will not open the windows of heaven for you and pour down for you a blessing until there is no more need.”
Malachi 3:10 ESV

Tithing and offering is scriptural and is used to support the organizations of the Church. Place your tithes and offerings in an envelope and designate it as such so it will be handled in the proper manner.

Our first Sunday (of the month) offering goes to the Pastor, second Sunday to Missions, third and fourth Sunday for church expenses. We collect an orphanage offering the last Sunday of the month and every fifth Sunday offering goes to our church treasurer!

Communion affirms God's commitment to our deliverance. It is called a "covenant" of deliverance. It brings the "awe" to the communion service. And just as people never forget a physical deliverance, this act helps us grasp the divine deliverance provided in Jesus. What we are eating and drinking was death to Jesus but is life to us.

Communion offers an opportunity for a heart check. We all need times of reflection to recalibrate our hearts to heavenly coordinates. Communion is such an opportunity, not for us to be judgmental of others, but to acknowledge that we are imperfect beings walking together through an imperfect world, helping each other to higher ground.

Communion is a celebration of joy. The early church was marked by joy and generosity. Those outside loved them and what they did was a magnet to those who didn't know Jesus. Wouldn't we all like to recover the essence of the Acts 2 church?

Communion is a statement of our unity. It is the great leveler. We are all together at the foot of the cross, all needing grace, all drinking deeply of the love of God, all equally flawed but gladly resting in His warm embrace.

Communion is the anticipation of victory to come. It is "until Jesus returns." The groaning of today is only temporary. Victory is assured because in His death He destroyed him who had the power of death. (Hebrews 2:14-15)

Communion is a reminder of new life in Christ. The week to come can be an adventure because His resurrection life is lived out in our lives.

"I WILL BLESS THE LORD AT ALL TIMES, HIS PRAISE SHALL CONTINUALLY BE IN MY MOUTH".

It is clear to us, friends, that God not only loves you very much but also has put his hand on you for something special". 1 Thessalonians 1:2-4
